WIRELESS TELECOMMUNICATIONS BUREAU SEEKS COMMENT ON REQUESTS FOR WAIVER TO PERMIT THE APPROVAL OF CLASS B AUTOMATIC IDENTIFICATION SYSTEM (AIS) DEVICES

WT Docket No. 04-344

Comment Date: July 5, 2007

Reply Comment Date: July 16, 2007

Pursuant to Section 1.925(c) of the Commission's Rules,<sup>1</sup> the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau (Bureau) hereby seeks comment on the requests of ACR Electronics, Inc.<sup>2</sup> and Software Radio Technology plc (SRT)<sup>3</sup> to authorize Class B AIS transponders (collectively, the Requests). In a Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making in WT Docket No. 04-344, the Commission proposed rules to permit the authorization and use of Class B AIS devices.<sup>4</sup> In this Public Notice, we request comment on what procedures, if any, should be followed regarding authorization and use of Class B AIS devices pending the resolution of the rulemaking proceeding.

Low-cost Class B AIS devices are being developed for vessels not covered by mandatory national and international carriage requirements. Class A AIS devices are required for ships to meet international Safety of Life at Sea (SOLAS) Convention ship carriage requirements and certain domestic AIS ship carriage requirements under the Maritime Transportation Security Act of 2002.<sup>5</sup> Class B AIS devices are intended to provide a less expensive alternative to Class A AIS equipment, while still providing vessel information critical to maritime safety and security. In standardizing AIS, the ITU Radiocommunications Sector Recommendation 1371-1, "Technical characteristics for a universal shipborne Automatic Identification System (AIS) using SOTDMA (Self-Organizing Time Division Multiple Access) in the VHF maritime mobile band," provides for a Class B AIS device. In 2006, the International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC) adopted and published an international standard, IEC 62287-1, that sets forth requirements and test procedures for Class B AIS equipment.<sup>6</sup> In WT Docket No. 04-344, the Commission proposed to amend the Part 80 rules to incorporate by reference the IEC 62287-1 standard and provide for the certification of Class B AIS equipment that complies with that standard, and sought comment on what measures, if any, should be adopted to ensure the accuracy of AIS data transmitted via Class B devices.<sup>7</sup>

During the pendency of the Fourth Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making in PR Docket No. 92-257, which sought comment on rules to provide for the certification of Class A AIS equipment, the FCC Laboratory coordinated review of applications for certification of AIS equipment with the United States Coast Guard and approved equipment that met all applicable international standards and requirements. The instant Requests seek certification of Class B AIS equipment prior to the enactment of final rules in WT Docket No. 04-344 to provide for the certification of Class B AIS equipment. We therefore solicit comment on whether the Part 80 rules should be waived to permit the approval of Class B AIS equipment prior to the resolution of the rulemaking proceeding. We seek comment regarding how to proceed with respect to the instant Requests, and any other requests for Class B certification received prior to the resolution of WT Docket No. 04-344. Commenters advocating the approval of Class B AIS devices while the rulemaking proceeding remains pending should specify in their comments any technical standards and requirements that the devices should be required to meet, and any conditions that should be imposed on the approvals.
